FROM

To

SIR,

In connection with the examination of scrutiny of the represented and minority communities case to the town Municipal Councils at the time of their reconstitution I am directed to observe that at present, the number of members generally recommended by you for nomination to each local body is just equal to that actually required to be nominated and that it is found difficult for the government to make a selection of proper persons therefrom. In order that the field of choice may be as wide as possible, I am to request you to send up hereafter in future a list of persons containing ~~double~~ the number of ~~persons~~ names required to be nominated to each local body (including District Boards also).

I have the honour to be,
Your most obedient servant,

Secretary to Government,
Law Department.
